Original documents and authenticated copies

1. A citizen of another country living in Australia must provide a photocopy of the identification page and the visa page from their passport showing their permanent residency status. The photocopies must be authenticated by an appropriate authority, such as a justice of the peace or member of Victoria Police. For a full list of authorities, see the Department of Justice website at <http://www.justice.vic.gov.au> and go to The Justice System > Statutory Declarations. Where the trust requires multiple copies, one copy must be the original or an authenticated signed copy of that original. The remaining copies can be photocopies of the authenticated document.
2. Confirmation of enrolment or transcript of results can include the original or a downloaded statement from the university website that will meet Centrelink requirements.
